SRR Reaches 6 Million Hours Without Serious Injury

In January, SRR's total workforce has worked more than 6 million safe hours (approximately 400 days) since the last incident resulting in a days-away injury. SRR Construction employees have worked nearly 32 million hours (approximately 7,900 days) since the last days-away case. These achievements demonstrate SRR's strong commitment to workplace safety.

SRR Double-Stack Project Adds 1,000 Storage Positions

SRR has reached a significant milestone with the modification of the 1,000th storage position for vitrified high-level radioactive waste canisters at the Savannah River Site.

SRR Employee Hits Hole-in-One as Project Controls Specialist

As a former college golfer and current project controls specialist, Patrick Cunning is navigating the course of costs and schedules for tank closure project teams at the Savannah River Site.

SRR kicks off Annual Heart Walk Campaign

SRR recently began its annual American Heart Association (AHA) Heart Walk campaign with a goal to raise $30,000.

Commission Awards SRR for Improving Waste Management

SRR was awarded the 2020 Richard S. Hodges, M.D. Honor Lecture Award from the Southeast Compact Commission (SCC). The six-state group helps ensure low-level radioactive waste generated in the southeast region of the U.S. can be safely managed in an efficient and environmentally responsible manner.

Call for Intern Applications

SRR is accepting applications for its 2020 summer internship program through February 14. The program offers college students an opportunity to complete hands-on work with the company, narrowing the gap between the classroom setting and professional world.

Savannah River Remediation LLC is the Savannah River Site’s Liquid Waste contractor. SRR is owned by DOE. SRR is composed of personnel from a team of companies led by AECOM with partners Bechtel National, JACOBs, and BWX Technologies. Critical subcontractors for the contract are Orion, Atkins, and AECOM N&E Technical Services. For more information, contact the SRR Public Affairs Department: Dean Campbell, 803.208.8270.