

Sandra Fairchild

Project Services and Support Director

As Project Services and Support Director for Savannah River Remediation (SRR), Sandra Fairchild is responsible for all aspects of financial, procurement, contract, information technology, and budget management affecting SRR, the Liquid Waste Contractor located at the Savannah River Site (SRS). The current contract value is $3.1 billion.

Ms. Fairchild has more than 28 years of diversified financial experience in the fields of technical planning and controls management, procurement, contracts administration, accounting, earned value management, pension and benefits administration, information technology, including cyber security and governmental negotiations. She is certified by the state of South Carolina as a certified public accountant.

Education

- College of Charleston, Bachelor of Science, Business Administration
- Certified Public Accountant

Prior to her current position, Ms. Fairchild was chief financial officer for Washington Savannah River Company (WSRC) Liquid Waste contract and Management and Operations organizations. In these positions, her responsibilities involved the oversight of $1 billion annual operating programs with highly diverse missions.

During her career, she has held positions of increasing financial management responsibilities, including WSRC Operations Business Unit controller, with responsibilities for financial oversight of $500 million construction projects, and WSRC Closure Business Unit controller, where she had responsibilities for financial oversight of Environmental Management and National Nuclear Security Administration programs.

Prior to working at SRS, Ms. Fairchild was senior auditor for the South Carolina State Auditors Office. In that capacity, she had responsibility for oversight of companies receiving federal or state funding.

Ms. Fairchild is an honorary lifetime member of the Aiken Junior Women's Club, a member of the Aiken High School Booster Club, and serves as Treasurer for the Aiken Technical College Foundation.

She and her husband, Pete, have two children. They live in Aiken, South Carolina.