SRS Reaches Milestone in Construction of Large-Scale Disposal Unit

SRR completed construction of the outer shell of the site’s second large-scale saltstone disposal unit on Dec. 6.

Read more here.

SRR Completes First Tank Closure Phase Using Innovative Technology at SRS

The U.S. Department of Energy recently declared the first phase of closure complete for an underground waste tank central to a pilot project designed to accelerate cleanup at the Savannah River Site (SRS).

Read more here.

Holiday Cheer Spread by SRR’s Project Services and Support Team

SRR Project Services and Support’s employees brought holiday cheer to The Place at Pepper Hill Nursing and Rehab, LLC.

Read more here.

SRR Accepting Applications for 2020 Summer Internship Program

The 2020 SRR summer internship program will offer college students an opportunity to complete hands-on work with the company, narrowing the gap between the classroom setting and professional world.

Read more here.

SRR Donates $5,000 to Salvation Army, Rings Red Kettle Bells as a Volunteer Outreach

The Salvation Army will determine the best use of the money in three local counties through its many worthwhile programs.

Read more here.